

SANTO

PRODUCT OF ITALY

ROSÉ

Origins: Piedmont, Italy

From the beautiful rolling hills in Northwest Italy, at the foot of the Alps, Piedmont is a noble wine region which has the most DOCG appellations in Italy. The home of Nebbiolo, Brachetto, and Moscato, it's rich history and commitment to quality makes it ideal for creating Santo wines.

Composition: Glera, Pinot Nero, Garganega

Tasting Notes: This bright and beautiful rosé has a clean, fresh, floral nose with notes of strawberry and grapefruit on the palate with balanced acidity and a touch of sweetness.

Alcohol: 5.5%

Total Acidity: 6 g/l

Recommended Pairings: A perfect aperitif and great with seafood and chicken or anything with spice.

PIEDMONT

Also, known as the kingdom of Italy, a regal region, known for its sophisticated cuisines & wines with French influence.
